14) Wilson states that until now, magical or occult phenomenon caused by human abilities, so called faculty X lies under normal human consciousness. He says that such an ability is not only the key to 'occult experiences' but also a key to the evolution of the human race. On his other books, he explains this kind of evolution of human consciousness through "ladder-of-selves" or the 'ladder' hypothesis. In his other writings in which he concluded his 20 years of study, he says he has reached a logical conclusion that human beings possess a wide range of 'hidden powers' people are not aware of. However, on issues of after lives and reincarnation, he indirectly escapes from his color of mysticism by admitting explanation is difficult to present.
